2) Scrutinising medical reports & reporting on their merits for the guidance of the committee

2) The first portion may not involve much labour but is much less responsible & the second involves both & as such have to be paid for

3) 3 The Committee recommend half (1/2) the fee sanctioned to the Examining Medical officer in each case as honorarium to the Senior Surgeon

4) It is also for consideration whether a suitable monthly allowance may not meet requirements

5) 5 (1) The recommendation of the Committee may be sanctioned.

(2) The medl sec. in the case of "Public Insurance" stands on a quite different footing from that in the "official branch" in which latter the lives are all of a select higher class.

(3) Strict medical sec. is very essential to the success of the Scheme and the responsibility of the S. S. in this matter is very great.

The Committee's proposals to give him Rs 2/- (or Rs 1/- in smaller cases) is not at all extravagant & may be approved.

(4) The premium rates for the public branch are based on those of some of the high class companies & the medical exn. fees in each case viz. Rs 4 + 2 can be safely met out of the premium receipts.
